SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

The Placer County Sheriff's Department has arrested two suspects for shooting and killing domesticated animals in the rural area of western Placer County.

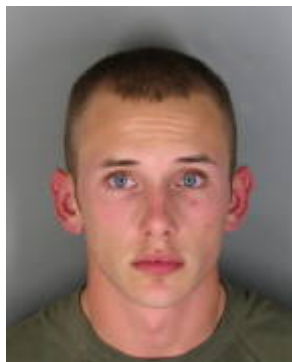

Collin James Lovejoy, 18, and Timothy Randall Schulz, 18, were arrested Saturday, October 27 after deputies developed information which connected them to the shootings.

So far, there have been five animals shot and two victims of vandalism whose lights were shot out at different locations along Mt. Pleasant Road, Wise Road and Godley Road. The shootings appear to have been done during the day and late evening hours. Two goats, two dogs, a bull, and a chicken have been confirmed shot with only one goat and one dog surviving.

Lovejoy and Schulz were booked at the Placer County Jail on felony charges of cruelty to animals, negligent discharge of a firearm, shooting from a public roadway and shooting from a vehicle. Schulz posted bail Saturday and Lovejoy is still in custody on $10,000 bail, plus a no-bail warrant for being absent without leave from the U.S. Marine Corps.
